

07-08-2010

65 ERITREAN REFUGEES THIS WEEK

ALONE ARE RECEIVED IN ETHIOPIA

FROM EGYPT

July 8, 2010: Twenty-one Eritrean refugees arrived today in Addis Ababa from detainment in Egypt. This brings to sixty-five, the total received this week alone. Among the sixty-five, seventeen are women, and one is an eight year old child.

Among the sixty-five, thirty-three are former Eritrean soldiers.

Four of the sixty-five arrived in bad health. After greeting the new arrivals, the Administration for Refugee and Returnee Affairs (ARRA) administered first aid to those who were ailing and had them taken to the hospital.

The total number of Eritrean refugees now received by ARRA from Egypt is 1,433.

See photos on the following page.

The Twenty-one Eritrean refugees who arrived in Addis Ababa on July 8, 2010

Health Workers Provide Aid to New Arrivals